

GREATMARTYR PROCOPIUS OF CÆSAREA

The Holy Great Martyr Procopius, born Neanius, a native of Jerusalem, lived and suffered during the reign of the emperor Diocletian (284-305). His father was a Christian, but his mother remained a pagan; he was raised by her, receiving an excellent secular education. He was introduced to Diocletian early in the emperor's reign, and he quickly advanced in government service. Towards the year 303, when open persecution against Christians began, Neanius was sent as a proconsul to Alexandria with orders to mercilessly persecute the Church of God.

On the way to Egypt, Neanius had a vision similar to that of Paul on the road to Damascus. A divine voice exclaimed, "Neanius, why do you persecute Me?"

Neanius asked, "Who are you, Lord?"

"I am the crucified Jesus, the Son of God."

A radiant Cross appeared in the air, and Neanius felt an inexpressible joy; he was transformed from being a persecutor into a zealous follower of Christ, and he fought victoriously against the barbarians.

However, his own mother went to the emperor to complain that her son did not worship the ancestral gods. Neanius was summoned to the procurator, where he was solemnly handed the decree of Diocletian. He read it and tore it up in front of everyone. He was put in chains and sent to Cæsarea of Palestine. After torture, he was thrown into a dark prison. That night, a light shone in the prison, and the Lord Jesus Christ baptized the suffering confessor and gave him the name Procopius.

St. Procopius was repeatedly tortured to convince him to renounce Christ, but he remained steadfast in his faith. Inspired by his example, many of his former guards and Roman soldiers were martyred. His mother Theodosia became repentant and stood in the line of confessors and was executed. Finally a new procurator, convinced of the futility of the tortures to Procopius, sentenced the Greatmartyr to beheading by the sword. By night Christians took up his much-tortured body and, with tears and prayers, buried him.

LETTERS TO ST. PAUL FROM ROME - IV

Dear Apostle,

So, you say, we are “justified by faith” and not “by the law,” nor “by works.” As to be justified by faith, it is “faith in Jesus Christ.” Further you state that all people are capable of being justified by faith. That is because Abraham was chosen by God to be “father of many nations” because of his faith, in other words, because of his faith in the God of “many nations.” Thus Abraham is father of all people and not just of the Jews. So I am beginning to understand that the law actually did apply to all people even though Jews considered it to be their law. But now your reasoning gets really interesting! It seems that however good the law may have been, it was very inadequate, because sin exists together with the law. You even say that sin is “aroused by the law”! Did God make a mistake giving us the law? What is the solution?

Seeking the truth, Yours Truly, N

Dear Truth Seeker,

Well, what then shall we say? That the law is sin? By no means! Yet, if it had not been for the law, I should not have known sin. I should not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, “You shall not covet.” But sin, finding opportunity in the commandment, wrought in me all kinds of covetousness. Apart from the law sin lies dead. I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I died; the very commandment which promised life proved to be death to me. For sin, finding opportunity in the commandment, deceived me and by it killed me. So the law is good....

Did that which is good then, bring death in me? By no means! It was sin, working death in me through what is good, in order that sin might be shown to be sin, and through the commandment might become sinful beyond measure. We know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin. I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but the very thing that I hate! Now if I do what I do not want, ... then it is no longer I that do it, but sin which dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do.

Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!.... For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh.... He condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. [Romans 7:7-20, 24-25; 8:3-6]

May God’s love and kindness be with you, Paul
